Kabbage Named One of America's Top 100 Most Promising Companies

Company Chosen for Forbes List for the Second Year in a Row

ATLANTA – January 26, 2015– Kabbage, Inc., the leading online provider of small business loans, was named to Forbes' 2015 list of America's Most Promising Companies for the second consecutive year. Kabbage was selected for this honor based on its growth trajectory, the quality of its management team, market size, and partnership strength.

"This recognition from Forbes is a testament to the incredible growth we are experiencing at Kabbage. We have nearly tripled the number of loans provided to small businesses in the past year," said Rob Frohwein, Kabbage Co-Founder and CEO. "The year ahead will bring even more dramatic growth as we expand our platform to reach more small businesses."

There was a marked increase in the number of companies vying for the fourth annual Most Promising Companies list, which ranks the top 100 high-growth privately held U.S. businesses across a range of industries. After a four-month rigorous review, Forbes selected companies for the list it that it believes are revolutionizing their respective industries, and have the strongest future growth potential.
